Verbal Description:

Three chambered ocarina with two very bulbous, oblong chambers with 4 fingered stops pierced so that they go straight through the bulbous chambers. These chambers may represent the legs of a person or the top of a hat. The face is eroded but appears to have slit eyes & some sort of nose. There is also a broken suspension loop attached to the rear surface. Central finger cone. Both chambers open into the chamber that would have formed the head.
